

UNISON

NURSES

You are entering a period of

ACTION SHORT OF STRIKE

What does work to rule mean?

- Not working unpaid/excess hours
- Taking all your contractual breaks
- Commencing and completing duty on time to your contractual hours
- Not completing paperwork other than individual patient records
- Not carrying out duties of other staff due to shortages including housekeeping, cleaning, portering or environmental teams etc
- Not accompanying patients to tests and investigations unless there is an identified clinical requirement
- Not undertaking non clinical administrative tasks
- Not collecting prescriptions or pharmacy in the community
- Not collecting or delivering non-urgent blood samples in the community
- No bank or overtime shifts on days of industrial action
- No carrying equipment
- Not attending meetings including bed management or bed co-ordination
- Not attending any meetings, conferences or training organised by employers or the Department of Health

UNISON

NURSING AUXILIARIES, HEALTH CARE ASSISTANTS AND NURSING ASSISTANTS You are entering a period of ACTION SHORT OF STRIKE

What does work to rule mean?

- Not working unpaid/excess hours
- Taking all your contractual breaks
- Commencing and completing duty on time to your contractual hours
- Not completing paperwork other than individual patient records
- Not carrying out duties of other staff due to shortages including housekeeping, cleaning, portering or environmental teams etc
- Not accompanying patients to tests and investigations unless there is an identified clinical requirement
- Not undertaking non clinical administrative tasks
- No bank or overtime shifts on days of industrial action
- Not collecting prescriptions or pharmacy
- No carrying equipment
- Not attending meetings including bed management or bed co-ordination
- Not attending any meetings, conferences or training organised by employers or the Department of Health